An extraordinary general meeting of abareholders in the Ewo Cotton Spinning and Weaving Co. Limited was held at the office of the general managers, Messra Jardine, Matheson & Co. Shanghai on the 25th October. Present :-Mesars, E. F. Alford (Chairman), A. McLood Prentice, Zee Ti-san (Directors); C. Dowdull (the Company's legal advisor). P. H. Arnhold J. Howe, A. R. Cruddock, R. H. Burder, W. Danforth, J. Paterson, C. E. Anton, G. J. Morrison, W. C. Murray, J. Mackensie, J. M. Young, W.A. Crnickshank, E. Rivans, J. D. Clark, A. Mr. Ph Archold said that before the resolutions were passed, he thought it would be better for them to make sure that cotton spinning in Shanghai would be a success. He also thought that the General Managers' commission, even at per cent. was excessive, and went into detailed figures to prove his contention. He moved that the meeting be adjourned until the directors could put figures before the shareholders to show that the cotton spinning industry was likely to
